Dearest B -

Mother wants you to get this prescription filled & bring it - with you, as papa is nearing the end of his supply.
Today is perfectly fine, the breastels came down this A. M. - I seem pleased, Cora went off last night with Jockey & met them this A. M.
I think Mr K. looks better but I fear it will be difficult to keep him contented for long.

The Cong expected fishing excursion came off today, Cora got a large haul, I & friend Wilfred & not - Willie was to be the third, I do not know who changed this - Cora was setting off with his gun in high feather, when I heard Mr Boney tell him to leave it behind - Cora said you had given him permission.

to take it out - & that Cassel wanted it - & so on - but I said if the B's objected to it & Wilfred was going, he wd have to have it - - - which he did with a best grade - the end however was that Dr Jebb - & Dr Boney both added themselves to the party & I fancy neither Cassel or the boys will get much fishing - - -

About 2 of the fishers returned, the only fry being a very small fish Wilfred had caught. Cassel suggested going out again which he did with her two & Wilfred, the day is perfect & I hope they may be successful which wd be a great pleasure.
I am so glad to have them well employed, & out of the maddening crowd. Bernard has been very good since you left - & I think Cor tries in fact but his carelessness & utter oblivion to anything but the interest of the moment, are very

The revenues arrived safely - with 8000 Prags & 25 carriages - having had a reply of their article to sell at 8000 a day in, so unless they come by hand, I do not think another night as well long a few at a time here; I have just got a show of them Kuis like Margrave. The secret is now long with all our

Anna

As ever is very anxious for 2 weeks hence for his satisfaction - I promised him that I will let him see it - but not out in town
