

Sunday evening -
July 19/98

Dearest - B -

We had quite expected you to come down Saturday, & I fear no one wrote in case of your being detained further. I wrote a line - The carriage arrived & the trial trip was a success: Nafia seemed pleased with it, & the kind thought it implied -

Every thing goes on her fairly well - The terms are satisfactory, the piano eagerly looked for - Kulu is wild to get her fingers on the keys again -

Today has been superb. clear, crisp air, & bright sunshine - everyone rejoicing.

Con & Clare have gone to church, & I have finished reading to the others except Bernard, who disappeared in the pulps after tea because I w<sup>d</sup> not let him go to church. It is the first really naughty thing I have known him do since I came over. I was so pleased with him he has given so little trouble

The strawberries still are ripening, but - word - lent - long - rain -

I w<sup>d</sup> like a copy of the Holy War beyond which is in one of the top shelves of the school - room book case - near the door - a smallish book black cover & marbled pages - I think it w<sup>d</sup> be interesting for all the children. I shall need a new film. 35¢ Baker St. Catherine St. I asked her to let Bernard was a peculiar which has been a great joy to me - she hadly indulged Charles, very dearly loved her dearly wells, with dearly loved her dearly unless with the very dearly loved her dearly wrote to forget for it - often for two years she shall soon see with her dearly is always well; the case of Charles it remains in the case of Charles I submit to you dearly

the same all through the very dearly
Charles, very dearly loved her dearly
been well the very dearly loved her dearly
I submit to you dearly
may at the very dearly loved her dearly to come at the very dearly loved her dearly

to come - at the very dearly loved her dearly
with the very dearly loved her dearly
Anna

I hope you got my letter already the best - thank God - I will come in in city for me - the summer school as well as well as the school out

Yours
Anna
