Dearest, I am quite relieved to hear that - Lizzie is with you she will keep you quite comfortable I think. I want her to permit - that - iron bed, & to touch up some of the white window sills - If you get her the paint - she will do it just well, & likes it - she ought to have plenty of time - I fancy you wd be smart - comfortable with late dinner & little cooked for lunch, or stay out - if you were near any eating place. she wd clean late also - I will write her a note - All goes well here - imagine Mr Keury & Harley turning up to rest in this remote corner -

I intended to have had an or two tea-parties, but there have been so many festivities that there was no space for mine - Really too much for the young ones, though they have enjoyed themselves greatly - I feel stupid & ineffective when it comes to parties, all the other people do so well in that regard

I wd like to know about the trains not on my own account - but papa absolutely needs the screaming room & I fear he will miss it - there are so many people talking of staying till the trains stop.
I am willing enough to stay to a reasonable time but - the 15th seems to be the outside - Ruth has to be up the 13th so the 12th is her last date.

Do be careful of your & include all the cream you can & rest as much as possible

Herb & I finished the windows & the car put in place upstairs that is hardly wanted to be done before we return

I enclose Swift's Mithridate letter; I rather wished to keep these like Spring Swift's part of - very appropriate - to all see

Yrs - Love
Anna
