Dearest Is -

I have to thank you for your telegram, it was thoughtful of you dear & I think our mutual love & attention more as one grows older & it ought to be so, if one escapes the hardness of heart - that life seems to bring to some.

The weather here is still fine yesterday, oppressive & hot till late evening - today fresh & cool. We have had Willie in bed all yesterday early in the morning she came in to me complaining of dreadful pains - I put a mustard & gave her a dose but unfortunately she threw up & the day went on & she seemed no better, I sent for Kemp - he says it is just constipation & the effect of change - but she has had 3 doses of medicine, with little or no satisfactory result & says just go on - & she looks much better & her pulse & temperature seem right - so I suppose she will feel better soon - I have Mrs. Lavel here today with the baby - & the second girl to mend it - rather an addition, but the children are charmed with the baby, especially Poffie - you had better not mention Nellie's indisposition as she is much afraid of her mother hearing of it. We have not been very busy about making & Care has been ^{upset} also these two days - so Lais is the main stay - Bernard has lit the fire & overlooked kitchen affairs in a secondary manner also.

I wonder if you have been very warm. The papers seem so long behind hand the only mail arrives about 8 of which I cannot understand - & sometimes we do not get it till morning.

Do keep her been quite busy up & not going about, he does such like a shoemaker - I was a enough I spoke a shoemaker - I full of mischiefs I was plenty of consoling sweet advice full of some of the time, I was I was always to find many to do of U.S. also, remains about - I believe that colours & will I wonderful discernment - I am looking him alone as he seemed - well got into much mischief. I seeing what he well get into at - I was trying to say to him a the gallery - what secret to me was a the hand is to show him the dining room, I I as he talked from the school room as well as I really brought them for him - the two tables was such very good with the case - he had I the two windows and I was brought last summer the little house was to be the quietest the dining room for several years - I think the good deal of the old way, if possible - as I limited. The parlour was such very much better we all get in. but not - Davis is wide W. Bell not - never Turkey again - but I have know whether I'd have liked it is through I got - but to try the shoes I have seen also
