They say the mad is gain off of mine

dearest,

There seems so quiet minutes to write, unless evening & then I am too tired, & indeed it is late by the time we get all the heads of hair done, & the mail is often not in till 9.00 that keeps B.G. late, & so on.

after a cold wind & a wet morning we have again a delightful temperature, & see them - a number of people now here but quiet - still unbroken as they have been absorbed into their houses

Mother's place looks lovely & is being more & more cultured each day - we hear very little of you or Ruth or Cole, & ha little idea of how you are faring - At least you are relieved of the librarians - I hear they were as locusts, I well enjoyed the land. Tao had about Ingres, he is a very rare teacher - & that language business is always difficult to provide for: certainly there will be no rest for the gov's till salaries are raised, a perpetual change of "heads."

If you delay in coming you had better send me $5.00 - as I do not want to spend the small change, I have had to pay out more than I expected - $5.00 for butter we had in town - over $4.00 for freight, a good deal for eggs - & lay down: & the family wants endless marketings, it is no longer a few small things, that went next to nothing to tell him I was ready - he had gone, this was a loss as he was also a watchmaker & I would have to buy a just - B. S. watch right, it is wrong in some ways, I is quite a loss, as he no longer has a provision as to time This the summer, was in several & entirely teaching fairly well but had for you trouble but not that she cannot - read at work, I is a great deprivation.

I have is at the house do ask her what she did about the southern covers for the year - the three enclosed covers are her old register I can only find one piece cotton one flannel the small & of each - I had I will make them for but meanwhile I have checked every other one - I have I had I had - that seems some suit - get - cotton suit I also I - I very long time I had I am all - I seems
