

Little Italy
Sept. 12th 1900

I went on summer
there & think - if he gives a card report
now we shall find
we have done our best. B has been very quiet except -
I believe has been there and I believe of the most interesting -

to all
Anne
I am in the midst of a century slaver
see a champion
with only a low sail - trying to make the shelter of the point - but the big waves turning its head shoreward as each rolled in all the youngsters have fled out - to see what happens - It has rained since I left night as in the days I was at almost had over to mother - I fear this will mean the end - Guess her all last evening
"my dear" think we shall have to ask him to tea - we like to ask Hackett about St Jerome he & as I read much - I don't recall has several boys himself - I hope been in & out of it - I hope
