

To B. J. H. 295 University St
Atlantic City March 7th 1901

Dearest Bernard,

There is little to tell, we are just as we were, no end of cards & notes of sympathy left.
Mr. Hedley called, he is a kind man.

I went out early this morning with Clara & attended to a few purchases & after writing some notes I lay down & had a quiet rest - I don't think we shall have a great trouble about garments - we have little things, it is the ligons that are needed, wh. mean money rather than much attention

The day has been quite cold & winter like. It is wonderful & beautiful how the winter holds on -

I hope you are felling yourself with the strong life-giving sea-air, that is the best exercis^e for the burking coughs & colds you must have all the woes behind you back fresh & on a better track for the spring.

I fear this will be too late for the train you left by - I sh^d have seen to it earlier - but there were various things that wanted seeing to -

Loveingly
Anna
