

to see to it - directly she gets back perhaps you had better telepheme to Wacoming I
bel. been before
so you has said
anything of her
about Louis
I do think the course of reach
excluded the Wadsworth
of night
of and for B.S.
especially
other work
stoppid
with much
last Anna

Long Distance Telephone.
The Woodstock Inn
OPEN ALL YEAR.
ARTHUR E. WILDER, MANAGER
Woodstock, Vt.,

Passenger Elevator.
March 2nd 1906.

valuable papers had been removed from the building that has been burned, only a few days before. It really is a matter of great thankfulness.

A dull day today, I know Keegan Jerin - we have not driven as another was busy over English letters Surely we will have a sudden spring when it comes:

I am anxious to hear what comes of Louis message from the P.M.
I do hope he will get something good, & where he will see some new country. There are two articles in April's Outlook about Forestry the other called a Treeless country referring to absolute destruction of forests in parts of Manchuria &

Northern China. The Outlook you gave me had some very interesting articles in it, & I am sending it on to Ruth.

I hope I won't have to write again. & that Friday will see me back again. Certainly I have rested enough here, & thoroughly enjoyed the fresh air. It is different here from deer air even in the Park.

Ruth seems to be in favour with Diamond, as she has again had her work initiated. She does not seem so pleased with the teacher of Illustration, but you can't have everything. Her second month is nearly up.

The insurance bills for J. M. come due on April 2^d. If the cheques come in time Mother will send one to Browning before leaving here. If not, we must not forget to remind her