Ottawa October 19th 1875

Dear Sir,

I am really at a loss to know what advice to give you in the matter of your letter of the 16th instant on the subject of the Philadelphia Exhibition, but I incline to think you will be wise in obeying the instructions given you by Mr Selwyn in the matter.

I shall however forward your letter and its enclosure to Mr Laird who is now in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, and I would suggest your directing Mr Stuid to put himself in communication with Mr Laird.

I was surprised at receiving your letter as I was under the impression from a letter lately received, that Mr

B. J. Harrington Esq

Selwyn

Selwyn was now in Montreal.

I have the honor to be,

Dear Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. Meredith

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
