My dear Mr. Adams

I have just received your letter of the 21st and am glad to hear that you are well and hope you will continue to be so. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the office and hope to be able to get some more done before long. I am, dear Mr. Adams, very truly yours,

F. B. Brown

Enclosed are two papers for you. One is a copy of the report of the committee on the subject of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the State, and the other is a copy of the report of the committee on the subject of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the State.

Yours truly,
F. B. Brown

Dear Sir.

I called at your residence with a cheque in my pocket some considerable time since and learned that you were away and would be for some time. If I find this line brings me a reply I will to myself the pleasure of running up to see you as I want to get you to make me a gold analysis, if you will.

My family return from Lachue next week.

Hoping that you and Mr. H. and the children are well

I am

Yours truly
T. B. Brown
