Jan. 20. 1883.

My dear Harrington,

Your kind letter came the day before yesterday. Many thanks.
I prepare going down on Tuesday, leaving Ottawa at 8 o'clock in the evening and reaching Montreal at 9<sup>45</sup>. Do not think of going to the station to meet me. I shall see Miss Smith & the Ramsay's and then drive to your place. If the train is in time I should reach your home soon after ten o'clock.
I trust Mrs. Harrington is better and that she will not put herself about in the least on my account.

With the prospect of seeing you so soon
I am always Very truly yours
Wm. Bell.
