B. J. Harrington Esq

Dear Sir:

Your favor duly received but absence from the City prevented an earlier reply.

I have written nothing on Canadian iron manufacture which is now in proof, unless it be a reprint, & if you will be kind enough to call Mr. McDougall's attention to the errors you speak of, he can correct them by foot notes, if he is having any of my editorials from the Journal of the U. S. Association of Charcoal Iron Workers, reprinted.

Thanks for your very kind commendation, & I regret that any errors should have crept in. I, however, am always glad to have mistakes indicated, for a knowledge of their existence, makes one vigilant.

Respectfully yours
John Birkie
Secy.
