

May 15/85

Dear Dr. Harrington,

The Sarnia is postponed till the 23^d, so I decide to take the Sarnatian tomorrow, leaving here at 10.15 tonight. I enclose phosphate addresses & a small contribution to chemistry, hoping the phosphate business will enable me to make a large supplement.

My address in London is of W. H. Ropes, 5 Jeffrey's Square, St. Mary Axe. E. C. I should be obliged if you would send me your ^{foreign} ~~London~~ address as I may desire to refer some matters to you or avail of your services commercially.

I regret that I lose the anticipated pleasure of your company, but shall be much pleased if I meet you abroad. I wish I could arrange to go to the Norwegian mines with you.

Yours very truly

Robt. E. Adams.
