

British Association for the Advancement of Science,

22, ALBEMARLE STREET,

LONDON, W.

June 19 1885

My dear Mr Harrington

I am so vexed that in consequence of having been delayed in a Committee
 this afternoon I arrived here but after you had called -

I shall be here on Monday only from 12 to 1 as it is a busy day

June 19th 1888

Prof. Bonney.

elsewhere, but in any case

I hope you will dine with me on Wednesday at the

Geological Club at the 11

James Restaurant

Piccadilly - and go to the meeting of the Geol: Soc:

afterward - to dine at 5-45 and if you will come to the Geol: Soc: 10 minutes before I will take you there

Sincerely yours

J. G. Bonney