

Cambridge

Dec. 17th 1898

My dear Professor Harrington

I am extremely sorry that I cannot attend the opening of your magnificent laboratory, especially because my enforced absence prevents me from renewing a very pleasant acquaintance. The memory of your cordiality in Toronto has not faded, and will not fade.

Yours sincerely,

Thos. W. Richards