

Dublin

Friday

July 14th

Dear Sir,

William and I are to go on our way to Peterborough, and leave this afternoon. I put on board the vessel
for you a paper parcel
and two with agreements with prepaid, and I hope they will reach you safe. I wrote
along letter on Sunday

My instructions about redemptive conduct in all things with the

No one may find any occasion of complaint against you.

With all love
and good wishes from your affectionate

father