I think this scale
is about right.

Dear George,

I am too ~~hard~~ tired tonight to write ~~tonight~~ ^{to Anna} + what's more will not have time to write tomorrow or next day to her, so I will ask you to forward this letter to her when you have finished with it, + you may send the map too if you like. I have made this rough map, (for I'm afraid it's not at all too accurate) just to show our travels & the places I speak of in my letter.
Why don't you write! I haven't got a letter from you yet. Yours affectionately, William.
