

Regent's Park College
London, Sept. 27/89.

Dear young friend,

Tho' I am all alone, Mrs. Davies being absent at our daughter's, who is in very poor health, you had better come to me direct on your arrival in Town, unless ~~you~~ Dr. Bigsby be ready to receive you at his house for a few days. At present he is staying at Folkestone for his health.

I fancy I have found lodgings that will suit you; but you can judge better for yourself, perhaps, after seeing and examining the place.

Drop me a line when you come that I may know when to expect you.

Believe me

Yours very truly

Thos. Davies.

M. G. Dawson.
