Dear George

Your letter and Mamma arrived early this week, the steamer having arrived early.
Before this reaches you I hope Mamma will be on the sea on the way to us, I trust you will no doubt feel a little lonely when she is gone; but I trust you will feel also that God is with you and that in all good and reasonable things you will be sustained by him. I trust you will spend the remainder of the vacation pleasantly and profitably and that you will be ready to return to London refreshed and ready for work. Keep up your habit of writing regularly

Don however little you may have to say. When you return to London please also to report yourself to your friends there, especially to Mr Daines & Miss Metheridge and also to Gladstone; because you must not allow yourself to fall out of remembrance.
 I hope also your work next winter will be more easy ~~than~~ ^{and} pleasant than last; but remember what I said to you about punctuality at classes as essential to good standing.
 I mention these things now, because when I return to Montreal I may be too busy to remember.
 Miss Anna wrote to me in her last that she had spent all the money left in Europe. If she has found it necessary to 3 draw on your funds in London for your clothes as other things I hear desire to you to sum as from her. I rather expected our receipt of her last that I had not recanted a larger sum for Montreal; but I can make up your deposit instead, if it has been drawn upon.

I am & Mrs Bell very very kind regards all our friends, not forgetting who has I think been very kind and attentive

We have been spending six terms here in the usual way - as usual - studying
- drawing writing &c. - French German

This year among other things we have had a lecture on the steam of the steam engine & the
