Dearest George

We received your letter here to-day, and as I have a few minutes I answer you rather than wait till my return to London.

To-morrow I shall write to Brady (G. S. Brady Sunderland) I think is the address) and shall say that you will send the returns.

From the date you mention, I presume we cannot expect you here before Monday July 4th, you could leave on Suty night and get here Sunday morning;

but this would involve packing before your examinations, which I would not wish as it might fatigue you;
and it would hardly be a trying night journey if your exams came on Friday, I would have you come on Suty, in that case I would perhaps leave Schenck on Monday & take the steamer for Belfast on Tuesday and meet the Ocean Steamer of the Walden. If however you cannot come till Monday night, which I think likely, I must postpone my departure for a week. Please write this week if possible, posturing about this.

We have taken a Cottage at Barentsburg. It is detached, on a piece of grass ground and on the very edge of the sea. If I have a stay till July 11th, I shall be able to see you settled, and also to take a trip to St Andrew's (about an Mamma sends her love and thanks for your letter & for have I will, and introduce me to Prof Mac Donald, and to the sea coast at St Andrews, where I have no doubt there is good collecting.

Please bring the medical set with you,
If you cannot get alcohol, I can no doubt find it here.

Unless you receive further orders from me in the mean-time, send the three boxes & Mr Cross before you leave. I had hoped to send P.O. order for salary but had not time. I shall attend to it when return.

Please see that Mrs. Grant's stands that she is to keep your and take care of your things until next spring, unless she receives further orders from us. Mrs. J. McDonald
