Dear George

Your letter and
enclosures were duly received, but I had not time to answer
you from Edine. Your

plan about the change
on the boxes is all right. I told Temperley that I would pay charges in London - freight to be paid in Montreal.

When I get back of Edine, I shall send

If you see a letter six or seven weeks, please excuse my not answering this call on the ground of having no very objection
from London
MAD

Very truly
yours
MADAM

All order for the low bill.

We had hoped to have Montreal
letters yesterday, but they did not come,
if they arrive this
morning, they will be sent to us
here.

We have been
searching for lodgings
at Brantford we
there are at this place great pleasures

for pupils and
numerous & very
things, and beautiful
wildland rocks;
but before sending
we have come down here to inspect the coast
between Mepellup
and St Beuch.
Mrs Brouce maintains that you did not

See when here all
the privileges of the Court in rocks, &c,
but I have made up my mind that if we go on this Court we shall have a place where there is a deterred cottage
and ground around
it. The disadvantage of Bunting, & Charles is that you must carry ^{by} the boat & your partner, which is bad weather is inconvenient for ladies.
You will tell me what you think, & when you can write to me about it.
