

Memo

Plan of the harbour and showing how the Veins run and where it runs through the adjoining area. The distance they extend on the land and the distance under water. what they measure - where the shafts have been sunk.

The distance from the shafts to tide water. what depth they have been worked.

How much Coal you estimate to be on each Vein on the land and

How much under water Analysis of the coal on each vein.

Your opinion of the coal for gas, steam, or house purposes

