

Reeks Nov 23

London

30th Nov^r 1872.

My dear Sir.

On the very day
I received your letter of the 14th Instant I also received from the Duchy of Cornwall Office the authority for receiving the amount of your Scholarship. I now
enclose a letter of credit in your favour and shall be obliged by your sending me a formal receipt for the amount.

I have also obtained from Dr. Hooker, the Trustee of the "Edward Forbes Prize" fund the sum of £8.8. and in compliance with your request have paid this sum into the hands of

James Swift, whose receipt I hold.

The Certificate of Associateship, the bronze Medal and a Prospectus have been sent to Mess^{rs} Sampson, Low & Co and I understand that they will be forwarded
this day.

Trusting that you

requests have been complied with to your satisfaction I remain.

My dear Sir

Very Truly Yours
Trenham Trecks

George M. Dawson Esq
