Dear George,

Selwyn has arrived, and your letter from Victoria, so we fancy you comfortably
settled for the winter there. Selwyn seems to be well pleased with his excursion, and
seems to have been impressed as to the Alaska matter, which he thinks might very well be

Please. Ever your affectionate father If I can take up any papers or lacked to your family,

We are all well.
I rec'd you letter a copy of my news
book the "Dawns
of life", which I hope
has reached you, also your thermometer which I packed as well as I could.

Winter has been broken in the & lot

We have now shoes
which promises to tie.

I hope you will be able to enjoy some rest in the winter at Victoria, and that the climate
will agree with you as well as that of the plains. Any books or other things that you want I shall send you; and shall be especially glad if you make pleasant

friends and like the place.

The papers I enclose came to me yesterday from Ottawa. I have written a private note to Meredith, stating that I send them to you,
and that I think the charge unreasonably high; but that the firm had better settle in a friendly way with the Herald; and have mentioned that they are printing Survey Reports, as a test of price. I shall also look among your papers and see if there is anything going a piece; but you can write about it as you
