Dear George,

On the eve of leaving home I write a few hurried lines. We have received your letter from Vancouver, and shall wait patiently for further news, which I pray God may be good. I cheer you dividends and was paid a month's delay of grant, & deposited the whole to your credit. The $32.50 for Harbour Board I have put to your credit in my book as against what I have paid for your duplicate papers to Taylor & Francis etc. The packet of 200 arrived last week. I have not had time to address

many, but have sent off a few, all to people on this side, & some to Victoria people in your list.

William has arrived in Lucknow, & is to be home to-morrow.

Morning. I may add a few words after he arrives.

With all love to you and Hankine

Your affectionate father
W. D. Adams

P.S. William has arrived all safe
and looking well.
He goes to Mount
St. Ann's to bid
for a partnership.
