Dear George,

Your book arrived from Ottawa very on Saturday afternoon too late for bank business; but I shall go into town this morning and make the necessary arrangements and order a note of them in this. The amt in Molson's bank is only $140.51 and the balance in Montreal is $1469.07 so that I can send $1000 to Victoria without closing either account. Your dividend on Montreal stock has been and $33 in my hands, You may therefore still draw on Montreal, ^{Bank} for $500 more if necessary, and on me for say $180. If any orders ~~come~~ ^{come} for your salary I shall pay them into the Montreal Savings Bank.

All our people are to leave this evening for Metz, but I expect to have you back this week & stay with me for a short time.

With all love and good wishes, and inquiries from all our

I have anything conducive to safety and comfort in your expedition,

Remain

Your affectionate father

Wm. Dawson

P.S. I have just availed the credit of $1000 on Bank of Port Columbia District. It is to be telegraphed over, so that it will precede you. I pay for the $1000. in all $1012.25, which you should charge to the survey W.D.
