

May 7th 1889

1889

Acc. 1443

Dearest George, I don't know whether you have heard that Edith

was taken suddenly,
suddenly ill on Sunday morning with <sup>bronchitis</sup> pneumonia
with <sup>bronchial</sup> troubles
she passed away this afternoon - never fully conscious from the first

The best & most blessed among them - but the one whose life was ~~so~~ truly that of a child of God - a lovely witness to [Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

faitte & treute.

I know you will feel well as clear-

Lovingly

Anna

Wednesday

Edith's death,
Anna writes to George -
May 1889