Sept 13/89

Dear George,

I met last evening at Lord's mosque Rivings, Lady Selkirk, widow of the son of the Earl of Selkirk
who succeeded her for time in settling the Red River, and a daughter of Sir Philip Egerton the great fossil fish man. She is a charming woman

and to return by the Union Pacific.

If you can con-
time to meet her
at any of the stations
on the road, she will be very glad to see you.

She is accompanied by the Countess of Shrewsbury another widow lady.

Perhaps if you
cannot meet her,
you can send a note
(Address Rt Hon Countess of Salisburgh)

I meet her at some part of the route.
I have given her
Mr Farlane's guide
and some of your papers.

All well here,
Mamma, Mr & Fannie
reported back to us.

Ever yours

M. D. W. M.
