

My dear Dr Dawson:

When I returned from the hot welcome walk between the Arbitration
room and this hotel,
it was delicious to be
greeted by the freshness and cool fragrance of the beautiful flowers

that you had sent.

Thank you very much, and be assured
of my genuine appreciation of your kind thought
of us.

Hope it will be only a short time
till we see you
again in Washington.
It has been a great pleasure to me to see you again here in Paris, to whom the philosophic began in Belgium me, with answers from me both,

Great Cordially,
Mary Sophia Stanley - Brown.
June 29th 1893.

McGILL UNIVER
ARCHIVES

ACC. NO. 9098/12

REF. 36