Dearest George,

We have got through the last "crisis" & sent B - safely off on his travels. It was a week the last week, so many college matters, & family details, in addition to a great many business affairs connected with the St. C.'s sale - some of which had to be left over to see what time we'd do.
Bernard was up till 3 A.M. the night before he left - but he & Prof. Callender got off.

comfortably by Tuesday's morning train - I suppose sailed today - I have been trying to sort-up all the
will have succeeded in doing so, in another day or so - We had a most kind letter from Hope on Monday, suggesting that Clare sh^d also go over, no doubt it w^d have been a great advantage to her but the invitation came rather late, & the expense w^d have been considerable so I dare say she is as well at her work for the present.

Mother & I were down the old house today trying to make up our minds as to what sh^d be done with the remnants, but I don't think

It might be a pleasing rather confession matters, & it really is no business to see the sales & what I have, & behold how, this is the third edition went - I have attended to it, & I in London this year, & it is the last, warrant to see how some time, I can do more year - There is a pair of 14 ba. fine enriched with a blue color - two broken figures & the sales of very fine matter that belong to you & I have very car-fully at the moment, if you would if not coming down, I can send you any of that which do, as I do not want them to spend a time in any other the matter an interest which I hope all the time the whole of evils must - be cleared Eric has his last - year - on Friday & has done, I fancy fairly well - but it has been rather a day - I cannot think to note when he is Monday & - but he has an idea that he is of help to my children 10 I think I will let him be a wife has a month & as he has a friend with to read on the subject - I was accomplished herare deeds in that line, it - may prove good for both & cheap for himself certainly is near economical than a dog - Dr. Nolesch says nothing of it Whether there is any such other thing it - will make a man of good ability he has been most - kind & thoughtful always the last. -

I shall be so glad when the shipment of furniture for Mexico & final clearing has taken place. I mother & papa, able to take a little rest & quiet in the very snug new home - I do hope it will be a real place of rest & pleasure for them after all the long struggle of a very arduous life. Flarenci is in the confusion of packing up - & I am to have Victor - & perhaps herself & will when the sailing & despatching is further advanced.

She has not yet secured quarters at Mexico difficulties seem many -

We are all well & trying to settle down to our own ways without a head to the house -

Carry has not yet given up speaking of how much pleasure you birthday card gave her, & Betty's clock is the chief pride & pleasure of her life - Lais is raving up a morsel of the sear dog to present you with on your next visit; it is slowly growing less but with a self-restraint & moderation most commendable in a 5 yr. old.

The baby begins to tumble about on his own account & finds life harder than he had at first anticipated bumps & unexpected concussions following efforts to roll over, or strike out in new directions -
affectionately
Anna
