Dear Sarge

William
Lemus this morning
in Ottawa. Hank
is with us for a few days more, but I hope will go out
to see Anna
this week.

I do not know if I should congratulate you on your early return or on your being "acting Director".

Letter will imply some work and worry, but I hope you will be gifted with a cool
and clear head to deal with it.

Brinnist promised to hold over the review of your address till your return. I think now you should have
it out at once, and
circulate it freely,
especially among people of influence. It may tell largely in favour of your interests and to the credit of Canada.

as well!

I think me to advise that if you find much dispute with left to you, you will avoid your debt of every minute assistance to as well as to protect yourself; I do not know if I can do anything to assist; but if I can my time is cutting at your service; We shall be glad to see you here, and though I have
