Dear Genl,

The list of papers referred to in your note of yesterday is ^{part of} the part of the ordinary envelope of papers of the Royal Society of London. They sent me your oblige & my own We cut out, corrected and ~~the~~ returned by mail the letter. Yours & Selwyn's we sent to you, & could nothing has to be done

If any errors ~~mark~~ them & send the first to the Secretaries, Burlington House as soon as possible as the letter was delayed on some way and is now due. In fact as my knowledge goes the names are all right.

We are as usual, having happily survived the noise & of yesterday; but I am weak, Ever yours
 J. D.
