and

My dear Sir:-

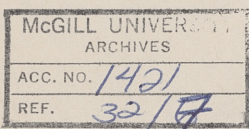

I was greatly shocked and grieved to see in the Montreal paper of the 20th instant, the announcement of your fathers death. Having so very recently passed through the experience under which you are now bowed down, I am peculiarly able to sympathize with you at this time. I well know how little can be said or done at these times to soothe the pain of parting, but I hope that you will be able to derive some present help and comfort from these evidences of how much your father was loved, respected and admired by his fellow citizens & in what high esteem his work was held by his colleagues in Scientific work.

From the accounts printed, I think your fathers end was a beautiful one, and that it came at the end of a beautiful life.

Please convey the assurances of my profound sympathy to the other members of your family, and believe me, Sir,

Yours most sincerely

My dear Sir:

I have just started and please to see in the historical paper of the 20th inst. the account sent of your father's death. I have so very much to say about the experience under which you are now passed down, but I will leave you to see for yourself. I hope that you will be able to derive some benefit from the account of the life of your father. I am sure that you will find it very interesting and profitable. I am sure that you will find it very interesting and profitable. I am sure that you will find it very interesting and profitable.

Yours most sincerely
