My dear George

Only a line to accompany enclosure. Mr. P.
I sh<sup>d</sup> judge quite expected the account to be paid as he makes no protest & I am then put it has been sent.

I sent your message to Mrs Beelittle thro' Mrs. Whit & they seem pleased & I regret she is slightly better. We all expect this to be any temporary. Anna has ~~again~~ again an extreme strain upon her on account of the serious illness of some relative of her Cook who had to leave at once to look after the sick man's family. So the winter wears on & we all lay for summer & winter.

Do please keep me informed about your health if I am as well as at present I wd. come to you at once. I wd. like to come. No hindrance to my doing so.

B.

Thank you for paper that is very ~~amusement~~ Presidential all about I have a committee of remarks!!

Don't tell you I have a committee of remarks!!
$4 for Appleton & $5. from Macmillan.
I have had three or four handlists, for? by hand directed to you I am or two I throw away
Do you now direct
I don't
