Dear Dr Dawson

I have been intending to write to you for some time, now the terrible calamity which has befallen you at Ottawa makes it imperative for me to do so. I need not tell you how deeply I sympathize with you at this sad occurrence but trust that the results will not be so serious as was at first anticipated.

I heard the other day that you will be visiting Europe this year, if so

Please remember that you must come and stay with me and we can take you for any time and as long as you like. You will have followed our proceedings in Paris with interest especially as we were at the second time to receive a visit

Yours faithfully
Richard Webster
