

to alluded to read
a it - I make any suggestions - of course
I am & I know man more things than the others - I have not mentioned any thing about the other piece of news - to be correct as to the less correct the better when it is in fewer traces are left - I must not speak of K. S. I seem to be telling on this
I am in Glasgow & a highly in some other
subject
Anne

must - mouth & snip off the N. mas affairs in such & hurried manner - There is one comfort that you must get down Friday night & that makes a few days till Tuesday - I suppose nothing will induce the W. B. D. to come down for N. mas - Perhaps it would too much for mother any way - Do you think well & I will come down for New Year's - if I sent up Katie or Clare to head the which will long continue to pass on the main stem, & derive nourishment from the well set-seats.

Every bit of the story, story, makes me regret that a record great man might not have succeeded I feel on the further side - I feel it merely suggested by the former influence & making little things as being returned & public accepted, they are made of the prothetic view, that becomes to characterize Hofar's measures - No single eye, the first heart only, can see clearly of noble relations yielding - they find it to us!

H. Well - you may be wise I am right in saying his wrong view, & not will intention, under the trouble. I sincerely wish him - No day, he has carefully records the in of of 1880 minor questions. When conflicts, we shall

They will be very gratefully received by a cheerful gift over of papers addressed per to include the necessity of letters - we then on a different quotation among which the 60th as to the greater surplus of Britain it would raise, & the need of a mark to it - It is necessary as being greater of a cutting ahead of the papers views. Also in course with the their department do you know paper not directly addressed that in his speech in 1855 or 56 - I can't find the He began the Department - which you was only to be begun again to be consider the matter in it - I don't think other matters do not seem to have been so present - I hope in mind, as the later struggle - I will the earlier ones were the most & others & the later ones only branch house there - I have thought of an excellent present - for mother - all her dishes are too large for present needs & she is always buying little platters & dishes & repairing when they are broken - I see lately a lovely little cut-crystal saucer as usual - with cover to use as a dish & only large enough for child & people - the one I rec'd miss Linn had got in England under 2 £ -

Alb. King - I have been writing down addresses & also going over a short paper of Adams - he does not write well, very calamitous & no spirit in it but he has taken a great deal of pains in looking up speeches & so on - Do you know it - seems to me the