Dear George, I have tried to think of a suggestion, regarding the publication of the Biography. — If you were to make a corrected, a revised copy, and arrange that your revision & Rankin's sh^d both be submitted to Mother. She might either choose between them, or have a final revision made to embody what were considered improvements in both. (No doubt Anna wd contribute help) This is often done, I believe, in any revision where those at work cannot conveniently meet.
It might help to meet the difficulties in the present instance; and you may think it worth considering Ever yours,
W.
