GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,

OTTAWA.

April 26th/92

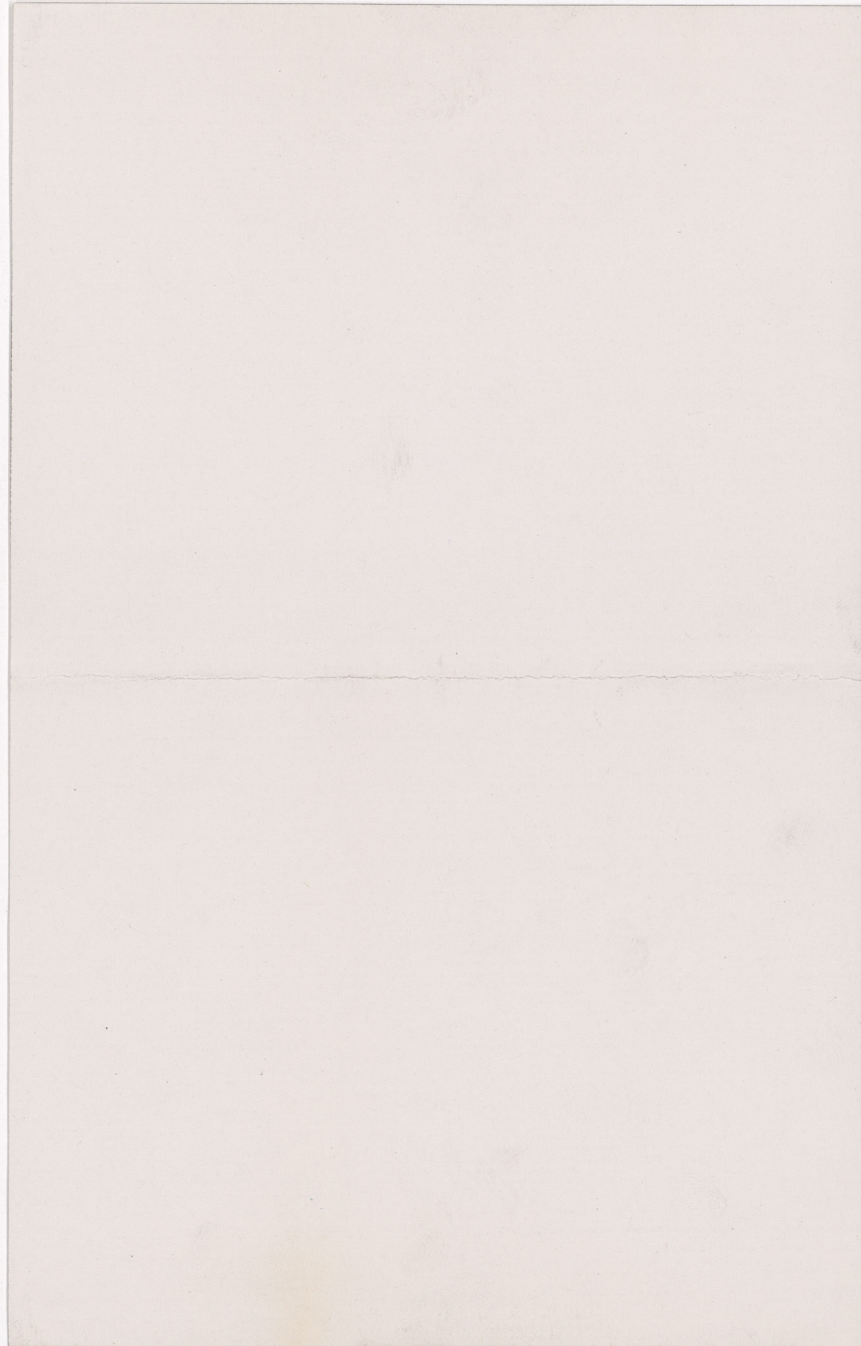

Dear Dr. Dawson.

I hope you will have a very pleasant stay in England & that we shall see you again
soon. - If you have time will you go & see my sister. Lady Lathams

41. Portland Place.
London. -

I have told her that

I hoped you would call upon her - so would you send her in your card - wishing her a prosperous journey & a speedy

return Believe me

Yours very truly
Constance Stanley of Roxbury
