Dear Mr: George Dawson.

I was greatly pleased to receive your note, telling me that you were in London - I had heard from Sir Charles Phipps, who, with Lady Phipps, were my guests, before

I left home - Mr Charles told me, that you would be in town, for some time, so, I am looking forward with much pleasure, to seeing you, on my husband's return - I look for him on Monday. June 6. -

If you can come and give us a visit after that date, it will be a great pleasure to us.

I leave here on Thursday June 2<sup>d</sup> - I then go to visit Lady Supper, till Saturday, when, I return to The Manor House, to welcome my Mr Husband.
Any day after Wednesday, we shall be happy to welcome you there.

I am sure that you will enjoy Scotland at this lovely season.

Let me congratulate you (most sincerely) on your new honours. I was delighted to see your name in the "Times" yesterday.

I hope you receive glad tidings from Canada.

With kindest regards.

Believe me, very
sincerely yours.

Grace Bedpath.
