

June 6. 1892
23 Denning Road,
Hampstead, N.W.

Dear Dr Dawson

I have been unlucky in getting anyone to meet you - for I could not venture on more than two or three, as my sister, who has not been well for a year or more, has already had a fatiguing week - so we may to quit alone and I will ask you not to trouble to assume evening dress. Perhaps as halls and rooms are apt to be crowded at this time you will find yourself more comfortable without it -

However I console myself with the hope of a good political group -

A train leaves St James Park at 6.20 (for Broad Street) then brings you to Hampstead Heath station at 7.5. It is a 9 or 10 minutes easy walk from the station and will done when you arrive - The return train is at 10.2 and I fear there is no chance of getting return half way - to come here from Hampstead Heath station, unless to right on coming out of the cross the road to the footway and keep along it, gently ascending, with your left hand on the wall or enclosure (that is turning off the main road) Go on till the open heath is on right, but do not take the road ^{out into} it - Keep your left hand on enclosure till you come to the third turn on left, beyond some tall red houses - (^{lowly} ~~lowly~~ Road) go a little way, a burning road is 1st turn it, 2d is right hand side yours respectively T. G. B. May