

June 24. 1852

Dear Sir,

I have tried to find

you in your room here

since I had the pleasure of being introduced to you by Sir Charles Tupper, but without success. Allow,

we now forward the
accompanying invitation, to say that if you are disengaged next Wednesday evening I shall have much pleasure in

Desiring you an invitation to the Society of Antiquaries reception at the South

Kennington Museum.

Yours truly

Ch. Kennedy

copy for an abstract

to the benefit of the

after the book

George Peckham

Secretary

Whitcomb