My dear Sir,

It was with regret that I received your letter, saying that we are not to have the pleasure
of receiving you here, but I am well aware
how importantly your time has been occupied - I should have given myself

the pleasure of calling on you, but I have had great difficulty in leaving home in consequence of the
delicate state of Mrs Fletcher's health, which is a source of great anxiety to us all -
With regard to your kind offer, Mr. James Fletcher was here in the spring and only returned to Canada in July, so I shall not be able to take Advantage of your kindness.

Regretting that we shall not have the pleasure of meeting you, please to accept my best wishes for your safe and pleasant voyage -

Yours very truly,
C. Fildes Fletcher.
