The Chancellor

McGill University
Montreal

Sir,

Understanding that Mr F.D. Adams is a Candidate for the Toggan Chair of Geology in McGill University, it affords me much pleasure to express my belief that he is eminently qualified for that position, both by training & experience, & that if appointed to the Chair he will conduct the work connected with it to the satisfaction & advantage of the University.

Mr Adams has covered himself of the best opportunities for the study of geological subjects both in Europe & in America. He has obtained long practical experience in geological work in connection with the Geological Survey of Canada which has enabled him to familiarize himself especially

The text is arranged in approximately 10 columns, starting from the right side of the page and moving towards the left. The characters are densely packed and difficult to decipher due to the cursive style.

Handwritten text in vertical columns, located on the left side of the page. It appears to be a separate section or a continuation of the main text, written in a similar cursive style.

the Economic minerals of the country.

I am familiar not only with Mr Adams' work while connected with the Survey, but also with various memoirs recollecting from his correspondence of special interest & too precious the highest opinion of both.
