Ottawa, June, 6th, 1896.

Dear Dr. Dawson-

You were good enough to revise my draft of instructions to Mr. Macoun, will you kindly do same for accompanying draft of instructions for Mr. Halkett?

Although Mr. Halkett will be a thorough and careful observer, he is entirely ignorant of the political or diplomatic phases of the question.

The brief references to the different contentions and the appending of Mr. Macoun's and my own instructions are consequently designed to aid him in grasping the significance and relation of his observations; especially as his mission is wholly a Canadian venture.

Will you please give me your views as to the expediency of this course, and use a free hand in any eliminations or suggestions which you deem requisite.

I am sadly disappointed at the turn the Pribylov Island mission has taken. I have this moment received your note enclosing Mr. Macoun's letter to you.

Yours faithfully,

R. M. Dawson

P.S. I sent a telegram from Mr. Nelson this morning saying he had arranged for Halkett to sail on the "Dona Secchi" on the 18th inst. Will you please return the instructions with any amendments as soon as possible. R.M.D.

The way to get to go with Macoun & my Mission is then conversations in which you will be instructed.
