Dear Dr Dawson

My wife and I congratulate you sincerely on your C.M.S., and hope it is the precursor of other distinctions in the future

When you return to London, I trust
we shall see something of you. We are so sorry to miss you on Saturday. If you are discharged any Sunday either for lunch 1.30, or rather

7.30

we shared the
it so much & you would come to us. -

What sad news
about the Quatra
and how the town!

Yours sincerely

J. G. Colman
