Dear D Dawson.

My husband has just received your note & I hasten to tell you, we are still free on Sunday from 5 to 9 o'clock & shall be glad to see you.
We are very torn between a desire to chat with you, & the fear of adding even a single strand to the burden a busy

I needest has to spare ^{time}.
So dear Dr. Dutton, if you have time, in a visit to us be sure you will find a heartily welcome. If you have not time, be assured we shall not be pained through disappointed with kindest regards
I am sincerely yours
A. Williams
