In re. L. J. C. Hotels and Lodgings. In view of the sitting of Parliament if it is very - indeed more than doubtful, I shall be able to absent myself for more than a day. It would be for the opening of the meeting. Under the circumstances it will be best not to take me into consideration when arranging for the above matter.

Dear Sir

I regret much to have to decline the most flattering and pressing invitation I received on the 27th ult. to be present at the forthcoming meeting of the Royal Society of Canada on the 27th inst.
I have many friends in Canada and have therefore long wished to pay a visit

To this great Colony of the British Crown, but it unfortunately so happens that just now my engagements at home will not permit of this most favorable opportunity to fulfill my fervent wish.
It so happens just now that my wife has been obliged to proceed to the South of France, ^{partly on account of her health and} to meet a daughter who is also returning from India for the benefit of her health, and it is arranged that I should meet them about the time fixed for the Montreal meeting. You will then see that I cannot put aside the arrangements already made, although I had written to my wife to see if some modification of her plans could be made, and was waiting for her reply.

This is the explanation of

150 Elgin St
Ottawa.

May 1/91.

J. Stevenson Brown Esq.

My dear Sir.

Many thanks for your kind circular just received.

I will (D.V.) attend the Royal Society meeting for a day or so and as my
- time

Time is so limited I shall most likely take a room at the Windsor.

Very sincerely yours,

L. A. Grant.

Dear Sir,

I am to inform you that, this Society at the Montreal meeting of the Royal Society of Canada on the 27th of May next; and that it will give me much pleasure to attend the Dear Sir, With reference to previous correspondence, I beg to confirm my telegram to you of the 28th instant, as follows:-

" British and French hot nearly " exhausted. Belgian quite.
" No acceptances yet. Am " afraid time is too short " now to take any further " steps. Am mailing letters " regret;" and to acknowledge the receipt of the following reply on the 29th ultimo from you:-

"I'm send Dr. Hogg and four " others from hot only."

I was in communication with Dr. Hogg before your telegram arrived, but have not yet received his reply. You may ~~rely~~^{rely} upon my doing all I can to get him to accept the invitation if it is possible for him to do so. I have also still to hear from Professors Lapworth, Traquair & Williamson.
With regard to the remainder of the English list, send you, herewith, in original, the letters of regret that have reached me. The difficulty has been that they are all busy men, and, as you will observe, in nearly every case, they have been unable to accept the invitation in consequence of engagements which they had already made. Had you been able to give us a little more time, the result might possibly have been more successful.

Mr. Fabre has not been able to do any better with the French lot, and he has now suggested that he should select the names of two suitable persons desirous of going to Canada. I have told him to do so, and as soon as he sends me the names I will cable them to you for approval. I enclose the letters of regret received from M^{rs}. de François Coppée and M^{rs}. de Quatrefages; together with those received from the Belgian Gentlemen - Prof. de Laveleye, and Dr. A. J. Renard.

I have received the various papers from Mr. Beaudry, and have made the best use of them that I could.

With many regrets that our efforts on your behalf have not been attended with more success,

Believe me
Yours faithfully

Sir

I have gratefully acknowledged the receipt of your letter of April 24th, in which you convey the generous invitation of the Citizens' Committee of Montreal to attend the forth-coming meeting of the Royal Society of Canada, to be held in that city on May 27th.

I have delayed my reply for a few days, hoping to find myself in a position to give you a favourable reply; but I find that it is wholly impossible for me to leave England at present, owing to press of College duties.

I am, consequently, but most reluctantly, compelled to decline the generous invitation of the Citizens' Committee. Do so with especial regret, as I am personally exceedingly interested in the geology of Canada, and in the scientific work performed by its Royal Society, in whose ranks, and among the citizens of Montreal, are several whom I am proud to regard as personal friends, & scientific colleagues, — men whose labours & researches all scientific of the United Kingdom hold in the highest honor & regard.

While you convey my sincere thanks to the Citizens' Committee of Montreal, for their generous invitation, and my apologies for my inability to accept it under present circumstances, will you permit me, through you, to congratulate the Citizens' Committee of Montreal on their advanced & public-spirited regard for science & its workers, & the Royal Society of Canada on the great importance & value of their researches and their publications.

With the expression of ^{my} most hearty wishes that their anniversary meetings may be an exceptionally brilliant & successful one, fully worthy of the Royal Society of Canada, & of the beautiful & public-spirited city of Montreal;

Sir,

Dear Sir

In reply to your circular of 6th ult. I may say that I shall be happy to become an Associate Member of the Royal Society for this year as suggested. Knowing, however, as I do the smallness of the attendance of members of that society, at their meetings, hardly ever exceeding 40, I think the Natur-nificent ideas to think of squan-dering any such sum as $10,000⁰⁰ upon the meeting.

Monsieur le Commissaire Général,

Votre très aimable ^{lettre} et la gracieuse invitation de la Ville de Montréal me font un grand honneur et me causent un chagrin non moins grand, puisque il m'est impossible d'accepter. Je suis candidat aux prochaines élections de l'Académie Française qui ont lieu le 21, et je ne puis pas m'absenter de Paris en un tel moment.

Je le regrette d'autant plus que j'aime le Canada comme tous les Français d'ailleurs, et que j'y ai des amis qui me rendent, j'en espère, mon affection.

Je compte bien être plus heureux une autre fois.

Soyez assez bon, Monsieur, pour être mes respectueux saluements à Madame Fabre, et veuillez recevoir vous-même l'assurance de ma considération la plus distinguée

Monsieur,

J'ai beaucoup tardé à répondre à votre lettre parce que j'avais toujours l'espoir d'accepter l'invitation de la Société Royale du Canada pour assister au Congrès de Montréal.

Je suis malheureusement retenu pour deux raisons: D'abord L'état de santé de mon neveu Brougnant m'empêche de m'absenter, puis, en ce moment, en Algérie, je m'occupe de la destruction des criquets.

Je suis très fier de l'honneur que m'a fait la Société Royale en m'adressant une invitation aussi flatteuse. Je serais heureux et reconnaissant, si cette invitation pouvait être reportée à une autre année si un congrès analogue a lieu.

Je vous prie donc, Monsieur, d'être mon interprète auprès de la Société Royale du Canada
