Qu'Appelle - 2nd Feb. 1885

Sir,

I regret to have occasion to call on you to return the medicine chest I lent you when here - which was done simply on the amount reaching me that there was small pox on the C. P. R. line - together with your having represented to me that you were the medical man in charge of the Navies - and were inconvenienced by not having a suitable medicine chest for travelling around with.

I need hardly express to you my surprise at not your continued silence on the matter - especially after your services had been dispensed with - which event, I am informed, you were cognizant of before leaving Qu'Appelle. I trust you will lose no time in having the chest in question returned me at once - I will take no notice even if bottles have been emptied - You are

You are perfectly aware that the Check is Govt property - and for which I am responsible. I trusted you in the matter as a gentleman, your having been introduced to me by one being the guarantee - and I hope I wont have occasion to think change my opinion of me of any Brother's profession.

I am,

Sir

Your Obedt. Servant.
