Dear Auntie,

Mamma desires me to enclose the written, which she says may still be worth reading though it has had a long round having been returned to her as a dead letter, for her and I cannot consent to be in it. We are all well and have received recent letters from Mamma and Lou. I go up this week to Ottawa to the A.S. meeting and shall send you papers with reports.
Love yours
Edna
