June 28/87

Dear Rankine,

I have just
learned that your Steamer passed Cape
Race yesterday, and
is expected at
Quebec Thursday,
and I write you
in hope of having
this delivered in Quebec, to which place I sent you

W. B. Hill & Co.
Lancaster

partly note last week,
under the impression
that you might
arrive Sunday or Monday. Regret
that you will now
be too late for
all the great festivities here on occasion of the jubilee - illumina-

Nations be — You will visit these both in England and
here. I shall
hope to see you on Friday morning. You can prefer to
stay by the ship,
which will cause
no detention. You
can come up to Montreal either

by Grand Trunk from St Louis (7 PM I think),
or by NVA there
R. (10 PM), or by the
Richelieu Co's Boat
(leaving at 5 PM).
Any of these will bring you here early in the morning, and if you
will kindly telegraph I shall try to meet you.

Mr Carpenter leaves Friday morning at 8, and will be much disappointed if she does not see you.

Ever yours
Wm Dawson

they can arrange for a
 good management, without that Catholic Central which cuts up so much good here, and against which I have been having so & I believe lately, to content against our avowments in our
 faculties of Law
 and Medicine. The days of this abomination of desecration are however I feel sure numbered,
 and its present aggressiveness is largely due to a sense of danger and

P.S. Should it be possible, which I hope is not the case, that you should go again to the rent, I should be tempted, if three weeks time, & send you for a change, if you come here and so west, I shall hope to send her with you

Weakness, In my part
^{continue to} I shall fight against it, though I may not live to see the victory. We were glad to have pleasant letters from Columbia and Australia, and were sorry we had been so stupid as not to write via San Francisco. You must however have got many letters and papers on the homeward voyage. With all love and kind regards and good wishes from all. Yours ever affectionately
